Dear LJPS Elementary Parents:

RE: Interpreting Wheel Class Report Card Grades

In order to assign S, N, and U grades in our electronic grade book program, we must associate each letter with a numeric code. This numeric code is not a grade point average. Students who receive an S from all wheel classes are still eligible for recognition awards such as Super Cub and Honor Rolls. Wheel teachers are using the following numeric codes to assign a grade to your child:

Code 85 = S (Satisfactory)

Code 65 = N (Needs Improvement)

Code 55 = U (Unsatisfactory)

How to interpret your child's wheel progress report grade:

Most parents will see a:

S

This means your child is making satisfactory progress in the class for the nine-weeks.

N

This means your child needs to improve their progress in the class and you should contact the wheel teacher as soon as possible

U

Your child is not doing well in the wheel course and you should contact the wheel teacher as soon as possible.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kaye McKinley
